Dear Sir or Madam,

This letter is to express my displeasure with Postmaster General DeJoy's proposals for the future of the Postal Service. Slower service? Fewer Post Offices? No airplanes? AND higher rates? Absolutely unacceptable! You should reject ALL of his recommendations and work to reinstall sorting machines he had destroyed.

Because of the changes he has already instituted public trust and confidence in this vaunted institution has suffered significantly. For instance, I am now driving my credit card payment to the bank that issued it so I am certain it is paid on time. This is after I sent a payment which was due by the 15th in the mail on the fifth of the month and the bank did not receive it until the 29th. Americans deserve better. Postal workers deserve better. The Postal Service deserves better.

Reject DeJoy's ridiculous proposals.

Sincerely,

Gloria Waldeck
